COMMON ORDER:

In all these writ petitions, the auction conducted by the first respondent-Hyderabad Cooperative Urban Bank Limited, is challenged on various grounds.

While admitting the writ petition, interim orders were passed in all these matters staying confirmation of sale. Thereafter vacate stay petitions have been filed by the Bank and also by the auction purchasers. After hearing both the parties, this Court modified the interim order to the effect that the interim order shall be subject to the condition of the writ petitioners depositing a sum of Rs.60 lakhs in all the three writ petitions, put together. The said condition is not complied with. Now, the above W.P.M.Ps., are filed to permit the petitioners to withdraw the writ petition, probably they are not able to satisfy the condition.

In view of the above, the W.P.M.Ps., are ordered, and consequently the writ petitions are dismissed as withdrawn. The petitioners are at liberty to file any appeal, or avail any other remedy, as available under law. The respondents are at liberty to proceed with the matter as per law. No order as to costs.
